Wildlife Rehabilitation Ireland (WRI) commit to being accountable and transparent so that donors and prospective donors can have full confidence in WRI.

We promise we will effectively apply your gifts or donations to us for their intended purpose(s).

We commit that you, our donors and prospective donors will:

- Be informed of WRI's mission, and of the way WRI intends to use donated resources.
- Be informed of the identity of those serving on WRI's governing Board, and that the Board will exercise prudent judgement in its responsibilities.
- Have access to WRI's most recent financial statements.
- Be assured your gifts will be used for the purposes for which they were given.
- Receive appropriate acknowledgement and recognition.
- Be assured that information about your donation is handled with respect and with confidentiality to the extent provided by law.
- Be informed whether those seeking donations are volunteers, employees of the organisation or hired third party agents.
- Have the opportunity for any names to be deleted from mailing lists and to be informed if the organisation intends to share its mailing lists with third parties.
- Have easy access to the agreed procedures for making and responding to complaints.
- Receive prompt, truthful and forthright answers to questions you might have about the organisation.
- We commit to meeting all data protection requirements as detailed in the General Data Protection Regulation 2018.

If you do have a comment about any aspect of our work, you can contact WRI in writing to 'WRI, 10 High Meadows, Duleek, Co Meath' or by emailing enquiries@wri.ie

Please give us as much information as possible and let us know how you would like us to respond, providing relevant contact details.
